Northwest Arkansas Chapter

Who we are –

Citizens like you who:

- Support conservation efforts.
- Desire to learn about natural resources in their communities.
- Enjoy sharing acquired knowledge with others through volunteer service.

Educational Outreach - Bentonville

Northwest Arkansas Master Naturalists is a chapter of the Arkansas Master Naturalists, a non-profit organization with several chapters in the state.

What we do –

Master Naturalists support natural areas in their communities through volunteering. Members of the Northwest Arkansas chapter are active in numerous projects throughout the year such as:

- Maintaining trails at state parks and other area natural areas.
- Testing water quality in streams, rivers, and lakes in Northwest Arkansas.
- Volunteering as area state park interpreters and assisting with various educational programs.
- Building and monitoring nesting boxes for The Wildlife Habitat Project.

Wildlife Habitat Project - Rogers
